The State Law Library, located in the Temple of Justice, maintains a legal research library and provides legal reference service to state government and the public. In addition, three branch libraries are maintained at the Courts of Appeals in Seattle, Tacoma, and Spokane. The primary function of the State Law Library is to provide a legal research library for the use of the public, state officials, staff and employees of the judicial, legislative, and executive branches of government, including all commissions, agencies and boards, local governments, and members of the bar. The State Law Library also advises administrative bodies of county law libraries on developing and improving county law library services. State law (RCW 27.20) establishes the State Law Library as part of the judicial branch of government under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.
